LONTANO AND ODALINE DE LA MARTINEZ

More than three decades ago a new musical force exploded onto the contemporary music scene, when the dynamic Cuban-American composer and conductor Odaline de la Martinez and flautist Ingrid Culliford founded Lontano, a music group whose impact on the perception of new music has been profound and enduring.

Over the years, Lontano has featured some of the most noted, inventive and radical names in contemporary music, who have seen their works given valuable and sensitive exposure by this most adventurous of groups.

The ensemble has travelled the world and its international reputation ensures a busy schedule with performances both in the UK and abroad. In 1992, Lontano turned its energies towards recording and its label LORELT has since acquired the same reputation for versatility, eclecticism and vision enjoyed by Lontano itself. Lontano is synonymous with 'the future in music'.

THE FIFTH LONDON FESTIVAL OF AMERICAN MUSIC

Lontano's Biennial Festival – created in 2006 – explores and celebrates the work of major American composers and reflects the diversity of style that is so characteristic of contemporary American music today. The festival programme was put together by Lontano's Music Director Odaline de la Martinez, one of Britain's most dynamic and gifted musicians and the first woman to conduct a complete BBC Prom at the Royal Festival Hall. This year's festival also celebrates Odaline de la Martinez's 65th Anniversary.

With a wide selection of well-known and successful composers, the festival reflects new music in America today, as well as diversity of gender, generation and geography. Some of the composers Charles Ives, Virgil Thomson and John Harbison are Deans of American music. Some of the composers featured such as John Adams are internationally known and others, though well known in the States, are now emerging voices outside their native North America, and were selected specifically to treat UK audiences to a broader spectrum of the best of American music today.

Lontano opens the festival on 7th November with a semi-staged performance of The Crossing, Part II of Odaline de la Martinez's Slavery Opera Trilogy – a reflection on Liberty. The second and sixth concerts feature some of our guest performers. They are Clelia Iruzun and Jenna Sherry on the 10th of November, the American ensemble Trio Appassionata on the 13th, with a lunchtime concert by the Canadian violinist Jonathan Chan on the 12th. On the 11th of November Lontano dedicates a whole programme in celebration of English-born American composer Bernard Rands' 80th Birthday, and on the 12th Lontano presents Boston Beats, featuring some of the top composers living in Boston today. Our last performance on November 14th is titled American Originals with works by the unique voices of Derek Bermel, Daniel Asia, and Fred LerdaHL.

The festival programme includes World Premieres from Daniel Thomas Davis, Barbara Jazwinski, Armando Bayolo and Charles Shadle, numerous UK Premieres, and the European Premieres of two Pulitzer Prize winners Caroline Shaw and John Harbison. Many of the composers featured including John Harbison and Bernard Rands, will be attending the festival. Most of the pieces presented will be UK or European premieres.

Featured before each evening performance will be Meet the Composer or Meet the Artist – a chance for audiences to learn more about the pieces and hear what the composers and performers have to say.
